Steve Sklar & Johnna Morrow | The Power of Sound Vol. 1

The new CD by Steve Sklar and Johnna Morrow explores new musical directions and features all new studio recordings of musical selections from their incredible sound healing concerts. These are sonic “inner adventures” designed to evoke and stimulate an enhanced sense of well-being, spiritual connectedness, healing, and meditative journeying.

Former leaders of critically acclaimed bands Big Sky and Little Green Men, Johnna and Steve conjure a stunning soundtrack via a collection of exotic acoustic instruments including Tibetan singing bowls, didgeridoos, guitar, igil (Tuvan horsehead fiddle), voice, flutes, drumming, Tuvan throat-singing, and an amazing set of huge gongs.

Johnna Morrow: Vocals, flute, bass flute, didgeridoo, gongs, shaker, drum
Steve Sklar: Khoomei (Tuvan Throat-Singing), didgeridoo, Tibetan singing bowls, sruti box, gongs

Release Date: Sept. 1, 2013
